The extension of circus network in Hungary - "Learn Circus!" skill development in educating and cultural istitutes

January 11th 2024

Circus, education, heritage - ECA international scientific conference

András Sándor educational program leader National Circus Arts Centre, Hungary

History

Academic year of 2023-2024

Initiative of the State of Hungary

Local Cultural Program

goals:

      (1) promoting Hungarian culture

      (2) cultural catch-up of the countryside

System of Goals

National Circus Arts Centre joined the program among the first participants

(1) promoting Hungarian culture

(2) development of circus-related skills,   education

(3) extension of circus network - building connections

(4) providing equal chances in culture

Build up

aided by: Government of Hungary coordination: National Cultural Institute

realizing the project: National Circus Arts Centre, Hungary

Characteristics

circus-related skills development, familiarization with circus props, forms of movement, basic techniques

19 counties, 45 cultural territories, 45 small towns (below 5000 inhabitants) repetitive, regular development; learning and practicing how to use circus props (3 occasions) for example, juggling, equilibria, human tower, juggling with plates, etc.

2 colleagues - 1 circus educator (theory) and 1 circus skills developer (practice)

classes of 90-120 minutes small, homogene group of 30 people accredited 30 hour-long continuing education based on the program organized by Budapest Circus Arts and Contemporary Dance College

Transaction

online application

judging (location, technical requirements) making connection - making a appointment connecting colleagues realizing the project:

Achievements

4050 children aided

135 classes of circus in education held

90 educational partners (councils, schools, cultural and community locations, organizations etc.)

21 educators and cultural experts participated

Thank you for your attention!